

PRESS RELEASE

January 2008

Peter J. Weishaar Elected Vice-President of the Penfield Business Association

The Board of Directors of Penfield Business Association recently announced that Peter J. Weishaar was elected Vice-President at its 2008 organizational meeting. A resident of Penfield, Mr. Weishaar has been an active member in the Penfield Business Association. He was first elected to the board of directors in the fall of 2006, and served as Acting Secretary during 2007.

The Penfield Business Association is the first and longest running business association in the Town of Penfield. The PBA was established by a group of local, civic-minded merchants who believed the Penfield community would benefit from an organization dedicated to promoting local business development through the exchange of expertise and ideas. The organization is dedicated to helping local businesses prosper through marketing support, educational enrichment, business mentoring, and networking opportunities.

A partner in McConville, Considine, Cooman & Morin, P.C., Mr. Weishaar's practice is primarily focused on litigation. He represents businesses and individuals across a broad spectrum of civil litigation matters, including contract and business disputes, labor and employment matters, construction, banking, health care, civil rights and personal injury litigation. In addition to his litigation practice, Mr. Weishaar's practice also includes ongoing representation of several of the firm's municipal clients as well as general representation of businesses and individuals in areas ranging from risk assessment and general corporate counseling to the negotiation and preparation of contracts and other documents.

McConville, Considine, Cooman & Morin, P.C. is a full service law firm based in Rochester, New York, that has been providing quality legal services to businesses and individuals since 1979. With 11 attorneys and a full paralegal and support staff, the firm is large enough to provide the necessary expertise in a broad range of practice areas, yet small enough to allow us to devote prompt, personal attention to our clients.

Our clients are diverse. They include individuals, numerous manufacturing and service industry businesses, local governments and health care professionals and provider groups, facilities and associations. Although many of our clients are located throughout Upstate New York, we also represent clients in Downstate New York and New England. We also serve as local counsel to a number of out-of-state clients and their attorneys who have litigation pending in Western New York courts. For more information on the services provided by our firm, please see our website: www.mccmlaw.com, or call our managing partner, Paul G. Barden, Esq. at 585.546.2500.
