Amy Varel is a partner of the firm. Her practice is primarily focused on business matters. She advises for-profit and not-for-profit businesses in regard to matters that include general corporate counseling, employment matters, business purchases and sales, contract preparation, review and negotiation, and planning for and formation of corporations, limited liability companies and not-for-profit entities. Ms. Varel also advises health care professionals and provider groups in regard to health care compliance matters.

Rochester Women's Network is the premier networking organization for professional women in all stages of their careers in the Greater Rochester Area. Its mission is to be a multifaceted forum where women create connections, build relationships and make their mark.

McConville, Considine, Cooman & Morin PC is a full service law firm based in Rochester, New York, that has been providing high quality legal services to business and individuals since 1979. With 13 attorneys and a full paralegal support staff, the firm is large enough to provide the necessary expertise in a broad range of practice areas, yet small enough to allow us to devote prompt, personal attention to our clients.

Our clients are diverse. They include individuals, numerous manufacturing and service industry businesses, local governments and health care professionals and provider groups, facilities and associations. Although many of our clients are located throughout Upstate New York, we also represent clients in Downstate New York and New England. We also serve as local counsel to a number of out-of-state clients and their attorneys who have litigation pending in Western New York courts. For more information on the services provided by our firm, please see our website: www.mccmlaw.com or call our managing partner, Paul G. Barden at 585.546.2500.
